- Tutorial services
- Identify and monitor students at risk

Student Disability Office
CSAS provides services which will, in combination with the resources and talents of the student, maximize the students’ independence for full participation in the TU curriculum and provide an opportunity to achieve career goals.

TU and CSAS provide reasonable academic-related and other accommodations for students with documented disabilities when there is a disability-related need for the accommodation. TU is in compliance with requirements under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Americans with Disabilities Act and Amendments. Students must provide sufficient disability documentation as determined by the 504/ADA Coordinator to CSAS before services or accommodations will be provided. Documentation should be no more than three years old. It is the student’s responsibility to provide or pay for the cost of this evaluation and/or documentation. After the appropriate documentation is received at CSAS, the student should make arrangements to meet with the 504/ADA Coordinator or designee to discuss disability-related needs. TU reserves the right to determine the most effective and timely accommodation(s) after consultation with the student and appropriate health care providers, with the student’s permission, as the 504/ADA Coordinator deems essential.

There are detailed procedures for the use of the services or accommodations, and there are appropriate restrictions or limitations on some of the services and accommodations. Students should meet with CSAS staff to discuss these procedures and review the written information, and to resolve any problems with access to campus programs or activities. Certain services or accommodations may need more advanced planning and the student is urged to contact CSAS at least three weeks before the start of classes for any semester. Policies and procedures are available on the CSAS Web site (www.utulsa.edu/CSAS) or at the CSAS office.

Prospective and Incoming Students

If you desire to provide verification about your disability and request accommodations, please contact CSAS prior to the start of the semester.

Current Students

The university policy relating to students with disabilities is published in the Student Handbook. The policy and related forms are available at CSAS and online in the TU Portal which are subject to periodic review and revision by the university. For specific information, please refer to the policy as published.

Self-Advocacy

CSAS promotes student self-advocacy for their individual needs. CSAS staff will assist students in consulting with faculty about their disability accommodations. Students, upon receipt of their accommodations, are encouraged to speak with their instructors during the first week of classes about their needs and visit their classrooms ahead of every semester to check for accessibility.

Campus Accessibility

TU is striving to make the campus fully accessible for students with mobility impairments. Please refer to the accessibility map to locate routes with the least restrictions. If for any reason a class or other campus activity is scheduled in an inaccessible location, the class or activity may be relocated upon request to the 504/ADA Coordinator.
